NUMB. 1122

THURSDAY, JANUARY 25 1799.

91° 1120.

Monday arrived the Mail due from Holland.

Constantinople, December 2.

THE Persian Ambassadors having, soon after their Arrival here, press'd very importunately for a speedy Audience of the Grand Seignior, the Grand Vizier would not consent to it at first, till they had, according to Custom, imparted their Commission to him; the Ambassadors declaring they had Orders to Home if their Demand was not comply'd with, was held, in which it was resolved to wave Ceremonial for once, and that they should be admitted to an Audience of the Grand Seignior. accordingly introduced to him, and having shew'd his Highness, in the most express Terms, their Master's sincere Desire to live in a perfect Friendship with the Ottoman Porte, they told that the only Means to confirm the Peace between the two Empires, and to make it lasting, was to restore Babylon, and some other Places, to Persia. Ambassadors were thereupon told, that they should soon be acquainted with the Grand Seignior's Orders; but, the very next Day, instead of the expected, a Guard was sent to their quarters of no less than 300 Janissaries.

Genoa, Dec. 23. O. S. Captain Mariowitz, Commandant of the Militia, having lately repair'd the Castle of Rudnick, in the Hands of the Turks, with a Detachment of Germans, and some of Albornia and Rafrica, summoned the Insurgents to surrender, which they did, without striking a blow, upon honourable Terms; and the Captain sent a small Garrison in the Place, and return'd with Orders that he found there. We hear that the half of the Garrison of Orsova is dead of the small-Pox, and other Distempers. 'Tis still reported, the Turks are assembling and fortifying themselves in great Numbers about Meadia.

Genoa, Jan. 6. O. S. The Court received Letters yesterday from Constantinople; since which reported, that the Bashaw Count de Bonneval, been banished to a Castle in Natolia, for having sided on the Grand Vizier, and excited the Turks against him, on Pretence of demanding Pay; and that his Domesticks are likewise banished to several Places.

According to last Year's Bill of Mortality, there died in this City 7363 Persons, viz 1534 Men, 1298 Boys; 1298 Women, and 2192 Girls. Of Number there have died, 4531 under 10 Years of Age; 198 from 10 to 20; 397 from 20 to 30; 508 from 30 to 40; 508 from 40 to 50; 418 from 50 to 60; 377 from 60 to 70; 325 from 70 to 80; 100 from 80 to 90; 28 from 90 to 100; and 4 from 110 Years of Age. It has been observed, the Distemper which has been most fatal this Year is the Small-Pox, there having died of it no less than 720. The Christenings last Year amounted to 121.

We are assured that the Velt Marshal de Wallis, the Prince of Saxe Hildburghausen, will have the chief Command of the Emperor's Army next Campaign. His Imperial Majesty has sent Orders to the Person who accused several Protestant Nobles of that Province, of having form'd a Conspiracy in favour of Prince Ragotski.

SCOTLAND.

Particular Account of Damage done to the Shipping on the River Clyde, &c. in the late Storm.

Glasgow, Jan. 18. The Mercury, at the End of the Castle of Port Glasgow, overfet, being driven from the Harbour. The Prince William, a 60 Gun Ship, was damaged in her Stern and Quarters, but afloat within the Harbour. The Friendship, within the Harbour, and safe. The Eglintoun, and the Glasgow, both within the Harbour, and safe. The Glasgow, above High Water Mark at the East End of the Bay of Port Glasgow, and not overfet, will cost a very great Charge to get her off. The Betty, not so far drove up as the Molly, and not overfet. The Nelly drove above the full Sea Mark at the Castle of Glasgow, and overfet, much bulg'd and shatter'd; so that 'tis thought she will be pull'd down. The May, in the same Condition as the Nelly, not much hurt, but will run a Risque when taken off, and cost great Expence. The Renfrew drove up as high as the May and Nelly, but upright. The Amity overfet and sunk within the Harbour, but next Day got a Float with no great Damage.

The Martha and St. Andrew drove out of the Harbour to the North Shore, a Mile below Dumbarton, above full Sea Mark. The Martha overfet, the St. Andrew upright, but lost her Head and Bolt-sprit; she saved two Men who were sinking in a Boat. The Thomas, having three or four Cables and Anchors a Head, and laden with Sugar, rode it out in the Road of Port Glasgow, tho' much in Danger of being founder'd in the Storm, and by the Martha and St. Andrew driving close by her. A Dublin Pink sunk at the Key with Tobacco. An Irish Sloop drove up to the North Bar, and above High Water Mark. A small Bark drove ashore, and bulg'd at the Castle of Port Glasgow. John Carnegie's Gabart drove upon, and lies a-cro's the Top of the New Key at Port Glasgow. John Knox's Gabart sunk at the Mouth of the Harbour of Port Glasgow, but will with some Difficulty be got up again. The other Gabarts in Port Glasgow mostly saved.

Crawfurdshyke. The Rock Dundo drove out of the Harbour to the North Shore at Aircoox, but the Princess Mary drove out of ditto, and lies on the Garvel Point.

Gourock. All the small Craft drove out, mostly on the North Shore.

Greenock. All the Vessels are safe, except some small Craft shatter'd; the Albany, the America, the Boyd, and the Caledonia, all Ships at least 400 Hog-sheads Burden, are the chief of the Vessels that lie in Greenock.

The Anne Galley, Hugh Crawford, Master, after cutting her Masts and springing a Leak in Lamlash Road, drove from her Cables, and run ashore on the Troon Point, betwixt Irvine and Air, and dash'd to Pieces next Day; the Crew saved, except one Servant, who perished; this Ship and Cargo was valued to be at least worth 2600 l and no Insurance made. The Graham, Robert Dreghorn, cut her Masts, and rid it out in Lamlash Road. We hear there is very great Damage by Ships bulging, running foul of one another, and driving ashore at Irvine and Air. The Welcome drove from her Anchors and Cables at Lamlash, on the Holy Isle near Salicoats. At the Broomilaw, one Gabart sunk, and all the rest are much shatter'd. The North Coast betwixt Roseneath and Glasgow, is full of Gabarts and small Boats drove up among the Corn Land.

By a Letter from Maybole of the 16th, we have an Account, that a vast Quantity of Brandy and Rum is cast in all along the Coast of Carrick; and that Day above 100 Casks were carried to the Custom-house at Air, and the like Quantity is found at Ballantire; two Boats are put into Disure, loaded with Brandy and Rum, one of which was beat to Pieces against the Rocks, and in the other two of the Crew perished. A great deal of Wreck is daily seen; Pieces of Boards, and Sea Compasses, &c. which, no doubt, belong to these unfortunate Vessels which contained the Brandy and the Rum.

The most dismal Account is from the Merse, where it has occasion'd a terrible Destruction; few Houses are left undestroy'd, several Churches are blown down, Numbers smother'd in the Ruins, and an universal Havock made amongst their Sheep and Cattle.

We hear from Dysart, that a Woman in Labour, attended by the Midwife and some of her Neighbours, were killed by the falling in of the House.

The North Posts relate, that on the Roads there is nothing to be seen but ruinous Houses, which are bare and unroof'd. Over all Perthshire the Buildings are in the same Condition. At Aberbrothwick the Old Abbey of St. Thomas, now the Church, is near quite destroyed. And at Dundee there is a great deal of Damage done, and many of the Passage Boats are shatter'd or sunk.

There are likewise sad Accounts from Dumfries, the fine new Church is unroof'd, the high Steeple much damaged; and the Carriers tell, that on the Road they see nothing but Corn and Hay scatter'd over the Fields in all that Country.

At Leith two Men lying in Bed, fell down three Stories, and received no hurt.

Some Gentlemen of undoubted Credit, who were in the Country at the Time of the Storm, relate, that having betaken themselves to Vaults and low Rooms to preserve themselves, felt the Earth shake, and are positive the Tempest was attended with the Shock of an Earthquake.

They write from Barbados, that some Months ago, Mr. Richard Washington, formerly Attorney at Law, but suspended for ill Practices by the late Lord Howe, being at Mrs. Warren's Tavern in Bridge Town, in Company, and Doctor John Kirton happening to come into the Room, some angry Words passed betwixt them, when the latter gave the former a or 3 Lashes with a Horse Whip; whereupon Washington snatched a Case Knife from the Table, and gave Kirton a Cut in the upper Part of his Right Arm, which wounding a large Artery, occasion'd such a vast Effusion of Blood, that the said Kirton died on the Spot in less than an Hour. The Coroner's Inquest having sat on the Body, found Washington guilty of Wilful Murder, for which he was committed to Gaol by Nathaniel Haggot, Esq; one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for that Island.

Letters by the Dutch Mail from Brussels say, that the little River Senne, which runs through that City, lately overflow'd in such a Manner, that all the Cellars of the neighbouring Houses, together with the Gardens and Meadows, &c. were drown'd: And they write from Ostend, that the Sea has thrown upon the Coast the Wrecks of several Ships that were cast away by the late Tempest.

The write from Rome, that the Portmanteau which the Courier lost as he was going from Naples to Spain, was found 4 Days after without the Gate of St. Sebastian, but all the Money was taken out of it, as well as two Habits of the Order of St. Januarius, which he was carrying into Spain, and the Dispatches for the Cardinal Acquaviva at Rome.
